

Exercise Your Mind

Name: _____

Warm Up

A book that became a movie _____	A book less than 200 pages long _____
A banned book _____	A book that re-imagines a famous story _____
The first book in a series _____

Light Workout

A book published this year _____	A book published the year you were born _____
A book set in the future _____	A book written by someone over 60 _____
A book with a number in the title _____

Moderate Workout

A book based on a true story _____	A book written by a professional athlete _____
A book about an Olympian _____	A book involving a sport _____
A book about a mystery or puzzle _____

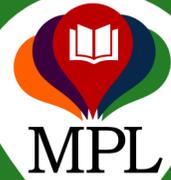

Vigorous Workout

A Pulitzer-Prize Winner _____	A National Book Award Winner _____
A collection of Essays or Short Stories _____	A book set somewhere you want to visit _____
An American Book Award Winner _____

Cool Down

A book written by someone under 30 _____	First book by an author _____
A book originally written in another language _____	A book written by a person of a different ethnicity than you _____
A book with a non-human main character _____

Adult Summer Reading 2016

Reading Challenge

Rules:

- ◆ Every five book categories that you complete between June 20 and August 19 earns you one entry in the Summer Reading grand prize drawing. If you check all 25 you will have a total of 5 chances in the grand prize drawing.
- ◆ Each book that you read or listen to (fiction or non-fiction) can be counted for up to two categories.
- ◆ If you are participating online, under the “Challenges” tab you can enter the title and author for each category of your choice, individually. The online program will keep track of when you enter 5 categories and receive your extra entry in the grand prize drawing.
- ◆ If you are participating on paper, just write the title and author of the book on the line beneath the category that you want it to count toward. Staff will initial and date five categories at a time when you claim your extra entry in the grand prize drawing. You can claim your extra entries at the main circulation desk any time between Saturday, June 25 and Monday, August 22.

Need help finding books to fit a category? Check out some of the resources on the “Find a Good Book” subject guide (under E-Library) on our website marlboroughpubliclibrary.org.

For example:

- ◆ “Books and Authors” is a great resource for finding books based on location or time period, as well as for some of the most comprehensive information about authors and the works they published.
- ◆ “NovelList” is one of the best resources for fiction, including the order of books in a series.
- ◆ “Based on the Book” is an easy-to-navigate list of books that have been adapted for film.

Also, feel free to stop by the library and talk with any of the reference librarians at the Reference Desk!